I E                      I E                    I Asus2/E              I A/E                    I
I E                      I E                    I Asus2/E              I A/E                    I
I E                      I E                    I Asus2/E              I A/E                    I
                                                                           Doctor, my
I E                      I E                    I G#m                  I G#m                    I eyes have seen the years                       And the slow parade of fears without
I C#m                    I A                    I E                    I E                      I crying              Now I want to understand
I E                      I E                    I G#m                  I G#m                    I
I have done all that I could            To see the evil and the good without
I C#m                    I A                    I E                    I E                      I hiding               You must help me if you can

I C#m                    I C#m                  I E                    I E                      I
      Doctor, my eyes               Tell me what is wrong
I C#m                    I C#m                  I B                    I A/E                    I
   Was I unwise                 to leave them open            for so long?

I E                      I E                    I Asus2/E              I A/E                    I
I E                      I E                    I G#m                  I G#m                    I
'Cause I have wandered through this world        And as each moment has unfurled
I C#m                    I A                    I E                    I E                      I
I've been waiting to awaken from these dreams
I E                      I E                    I G#m                  I G#m                    I
People go just where they will            I never noticed them until I got this feeling
I C#m                    I A                    I E                    I E                      I
That it's later than it seems

I C#m                    I C#m                  I E                    I E                      I
      Doctor, my eyes              Tell me what you see
I C#m                    I C#m                  I B                    I A/E                    I
I hear their cries                          Just say if it's too late for me

I E                      I E                    I Asus2/E              I A/E                    I
I E                      I E                    I Asus2/E              I A/E                    I

I C#m                    I C#m                  I E                    I E                      I
Doctor, my eyes                 They cannot see the sky
I C#m                    I C#m                  I B                    I A/E                    I
   Is this the prize                For having learned how not to cry?
