

People Are Crazy
Billy Currington
(Capo 5th)

Intro: C G

(C) This old man and me, (G) were at the bar and we
(Am) Were having us some beers and (F) swapping I don't cares
(C) Talking politics, (G) blonde and red-head chicks
(Am) Old dogs and new tricks and (F) habits we aint kicked

(C) We talked about Gods grace (G) and all the hell we raised
(Am) Then I heard the ol' man (F) say
(C) God is great, beer is (G) good and people are (C) crazy (G)

(C) He said "I fought two wars,
(G) Been married and divorced"
(Am) What brings you to Ohio?
(F) He said "Damned if I know"
(C) We talked an hour or two (G) 'bout every girl we knew
(Am) What all we put 'em through
(F) Like two old boys will do

(C) We pondered life and death
(G) He lit a cigarette
(Am) He said "These damn things will kill me (F) yet"
(C) But God is great, beer is (G) good and people are (C) crazy

(Am) Last call, its 2am, I (C) said goodbye to him
(F) I never talked to him (G) again

(C) Then one sunny day, (G) I saw the old mans face
(Am) Front page Obituary, (F) he was a millionaire
(C) He left his fortune to (G) some guy he barely knew,
(Am) His kids were mad as hell. But (F) me, I'm doing well
(C) And I dropped by today, (G) to just say thanks and pray,
(Am) And I left a six-pack right (F) there on his grave and I said

(C) God is great, beer is (G) good and people are (C) crazy. (F)
